

CONTRACTOR REFUSED TO PAY $25,000; SAYS BRINDELL DROVE HIM BANKRUPT

To-Night's Weather—CLEARING; COLDER.

ELECTION FORECAST
—BY—
DAVID LAWRENCE
SEE PAGE TWO.

The World.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

"Circulation Books Open to All."

To-Morrow's Weather—FAIR; COLDER.

WALL ST. FINAL EDITION

VOL. LXI. NO. 21,573—DAILY.

Copyright, 1920, by The Press Publishing Co. (The New York World).

NEW YORK, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1920.

Entered as Second-Class Matter Post Office, New York, N. Y.

PRICE THREE CENTS

ANXIETY ABOUT WILSON SWEEP ASIDE BY DOCTOR; "BETTER THAN FOR YEAR"

Assurance Follows "Tragic and Stricken" Statement of Pro-League Visitors.

GAINS SLOW BUT SURE.

President's Physician Says He Is in Best Shape Since Breakdown.

(Special from a Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Without detracting from the tremendous importance of the subject which brought the Hamilton Holt delegation of Pro-League Republicans here to see President Wilson, it can be asserted that public interest in Washington immediately following the interview turned largely to the brief reference in the delegation's formal statement to the President's physical condition.

Sitting in his wheel chair, his voice trembling, with tears in his eyes, the President, in what is now regarded as probably his final appeal for the League of Nations, spoke of the sacrifices by American soldiers and their mothers in the war, and of the fight he had launched in Europe to cement the victory of American arms and bring lasting peace to the world.

The fact that the President saw so large a delegation and spoke at such length is in itself proof of the executive's supreme devotion to the cause of the League, as it has been the insistence of Dr. Grayson and the members of the President's family that he be spared during the months of his convalescence from any strain which might in the slightest retard his recovery.

Only twice previously had the rigid rules laid down by the President's medical advisers been relaxed. One of these was early last spring, when the President received a delegation representing the Railroad Brotherhoods on the rear porch of the White House, when the railroad labor troubles were acute, and the other a few weeks ago, when he received a small delegation representing the Veterans of Foreign Wars, on the occasion of their national convention in Washington.

Neither of these affairs involved the physical effort required by the audience with the larger delegation yesterday. On the other occasions

(Continued on Second Page.)

HAIRCUT IN CHICAGO

$1; SHAVE 35 CENTS

Association of 2,700 Barbers Declines on Increase—"Don't Tip," Says One.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—The Central Executive Council of the Master Barbers Association, representing 2,700 barbers in the city, today decided upon a raise to $1 for a haircut and 35 cents for a shave, to become effective Jan. 1.

The explanation given was the increased expense of operating a barber shop.

"The public should be educated not to tip the barber," said the Treasurer of the Barbers' Union.

SYLVIA PANKHURST

GETS SIX MONTHS

Sentenced on Charge of Trying to Cause Sedition in British Navy.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—Sylvia Pankhurst, who was arrested on Oct. 19 charged with attempting to cause sedition in the navy by editing and publishing an issue of the newspaper, "The Workers' Dreadnought," on Oct. 16, was sentenced today to six months' imprisonment on conviction of the offense.

GREAT COAL STRIKE IN BRITAIN SETTLED BY AGREEMENT

Terms, However, Must Be Voted On by Men—Called Government Victory.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—The great coal miners' strike was settled today. Premier Lloyd George will make an announcement in the House of Commons this afternoon, according to executives of the Miners' Federation. The agreement will be submitted to the miners in a nation wide referendum for their approval.

Although the settlement was looked upon as a compromise with each side giving something to save its face, the outcome generally was regarded as a Government victory, as the Government's demand for increased production was put through, with the creation of a national wage board and the miners pledged to observe its decisions. The latter was regarded as an insurance that coal strikes will be made more difficult in the future.

The miners will receive an increase in wages of two shillings per day until Jan. 1. After that date wages will be adjusted every four weeks by a National Commission to consist of representatives of miners, mine owners and the Government. Adjustment of pay will follow the line of production.

8 BOOZE WITNESSES STRANGELY VANISH

Government's Case Against Whiskey Ring Likely to Collapse Without Them.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Disappearance of eight witnesses wanted to corroborate the alleged confession of William Sadler, New York stock broker, before the Federal Grand Jury here was announced by officials today.

Sadler, according to Federal officials, made a confession to the Grand Jury recently exposing a huge liquor ring, said to be handling millions of dollars' worth of whiskey. The confession implicated scores of Federal officials and many Chicago policemen. Eight of those named, it was understood, were to have corroborated the confession, but had disappeared today.

According to Federal officials, unless these witnesses are found the Government's case against the liquor ring will practically collapse.

NEGRO SAVES WHITE FROM BLACK MOB

Preacher Rescues Autoist Who Ran Down Child as Crowd Attempts Lynching.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Oct. 28.—The attempt here yesterday of a mob of negroes to lynch a white man, who, after his automobile had run over a negro child, was frustrated by R. H. Green, a negro preacher, who fought off the white man's assailants long enough to let him escape in the car. Green, it was learned, had been shot in the leg, but was not seriously injured. The child, a girl, whose skull was fractured, cannot recover, hospital officials say.

His feeling has existed among the negroes of the city since Sunday, when three of them were killed in a fight with police officers.

THOUSANDS ATTEND FUNERAL SERVICE OVER MACSWINEY

Catafalque in London Cathedral Guarded by Men in Sinn Fein Uniform.

WIDOW BREAKS DOWN.

Procession Said to Be Greatest Irish Demonstration Ever Seen in London.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—A pontifical requiem mass was celebrated this morning in St. George's Cathedral over the body of the late Lord Mayor of Cork, Terence MacSwiney, who died in Brixton Prison Monday morning after a hunger strike which lasted more than seventy-three days.

Church dignitaries, the Lord Mayor of Dublin, the Deputy Lord Mayor of Cork and deputations representing the British Parliamentary Labor Party and various Irish political and civic organizations attended.

Thousands thronged every available space in the large cathedral, scores standing on chairs in the aisles, straining for a glimpse of the casket where the corpse reposed on a catafalque with four officers wearing the uniform of the Irish Republican Army standing motionless as a guard of honor.

The casket was surmounted by wreaths and the hat which the Lord Mayor formerly wore as Commandant of the Cork brigade of the Volunteer Army. The brassplate of the coffin bore an inscription in Gaelic reading:

"Murdered by the foreigner in Brixton Prison, London, Oct. 25, the fourth year of the republic. Aged forty years. God have mercy on his soul."

In the front pews reserved for the family and official delegations there was one figure missing, the Lady Mayoresse, who collapsed this morning from the strain and anxiety and was unable to be present. Her physicians have forbidden her to go to Ireland with the body.

Just as the services were beginning the four men who with their comrades had been guarding the body throughout the night were relieved by a quartet wearing long coats, which they took off as they stepped to their places, exposing the uniform of the Irish Republican Army.

This procession in which the casket was conveyed to Euston Station was looked upon as the greatest Irish demonstration in England's history. It headed by a band of Irish pipers, it marched slowly through three miles of the heart of London.

Everywhere the cortege was greeted with the greatest respect. Hundreds of thousands of pedestrians doffed their hats.

Following the pipers was a body guard of Sinn Fein soldiers, wearing the uniform worn overcoats. The uniforms were distinguishable under the outer garments, but officials made no protest. The motor hearse came next followed by members of the MacSwiney family in carriages, and after them trailed a long procession of Irish officials and organizations.

The procession had the right of way. Police stopped traffic in the busiest streets that the cortege might pass unbroken. Starting from the cathedral, it moved up Lambeth Road and into Blackfriars Road, followed the river along Victoria embankment and through Kingsway.

Still under guard of the Irish soldiers, the coffin will remain in the station until early this evening, when it will be taken by train to Holyhead, and thence across the channel to Dublin.

GAS KILLS DOCTOR, HIS WIFE AND BOY; THREE OVERCOME

Defect in Apparatus Causes Accident in Home at No. 126 West 149th Street.

DOG ALSO OVERCOME.

Lodgers on Floor Above Dr. Radin's Apartments Aroused in Time to Save Them.

Dr. Morris L. Radin, his wife and their six-year-old son Francis, this morning were found dead from illuminating gas escaping from a patent hot water heater in their home, No. 126 West 149th Street.

Abraham Aschelon, Nathan Sacks, an actor, and Peter Kastelanitz, a broker, roomers in the house, were overcome and were taken to Harlem Hospital.

The tragedy was discovered by Mrs. Lena Bloomberg, a cousin of the doctor, who was occupying a room on the parlor floor, used by the doctor and his family.

Dr. Radin had been ill yesterday and the family retired late. Mrs. Bloomberg was disturbed during the night by the crying of the little boy, who slept in the same room with his parents, but she did not get up to investigate. Mrs. Bloomberg slept with her window open, to which she ascribes her own escape from death. When she awakened this morning she was ill from the effects of the gas. She went to the Radin room and receiving no response looked into the bathroom. Dr. Radin was lying dead on the floor. Apparently he had been trying to open the window.

Entering the bedroom, she found Mrs. Radin and the child dead in their beds. Prince, a collie dog, was on the floor beside the boy's bed, also unconscious from the gas.

Mrs. Bloomberg's screams aroused Aschelon, Sacks, Kastelanitz and Simon Blass, who were on the upper floors of the house. They stumbled downstairs and on reaching the lower landing the first three named collapsed.

Dr. Julius Lieberman, No. 128 West 150th Street, heard Mrs. Bloomberg calling for help. Without waiting in dress, Dr. Lieberman put on a rain coat over his pajamas and hurried to the rescue. When he arrived he found the three victims were beyond help. He directed that the three lodgers be taken to Harlem Hospital. Blass, it was found, had not been much affected.

Elizabeth Romero, colored maid employed by the Radins, said the patent gas heater had been installed recently and that two men sent by the manufacturer to inspect it, had worked on it about four hours yesterday. They left the maid said, after telling her it was "all right."

When news of the tragedy spread through the neighborhood, a crowd gathered in front of the Radin house, many women were weeping. Dr. Radin was well known in Jewish circles in Harlem. He formerly was attached to the neurological department at Mount Sinai Hospital. During the war he served on East 103rd St. 169, at 168th Street and St. Nicholas Avenue. He bought the 12th street house about a year ago.

Mrs. Radin was Mrs. Elizabeth Aschelon of New Haven, Conn. She was noted for her talent as a pianist and exhibited several pictures.

Classified Advertisers Important!
Classified advertising copy for The Evening World should be in the World office
On or Before Friday
Preceding Publication
Early copy receives the preference when Sunday advertising has to be limited. Late advertising is now omitted for lack of time to set it.
THE WORLD.

$3,442,892 Total Cost Of Harding's Campaign; That of Cox Only $878,831

Official Reports Show Republicans Have Spent $4 to $1 for Democrats.

50,000 GAVE TO G. O. P.

More Than $600,000 of Democratic Fund Raised in New York.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—The Republican National Committee's campaign to elect Senator Warren G. Harding President will cost $3,442,892, Fred W. Upham, National Treasurer of the party, notified the Senate Committee appointed to investigate campaign expenditures, in a report filed with the committee here today.

Of this sum $3,042,892 had been spent up to the close of business Sunday, Oct. 24, and Mr. Upham estimated the expenditures in the closing week of the campaign at $400,000 additional. The report shows that $201,583 was spent between Oct. 18, when a report was filed with the Clerk of the House of Representatives in Washington, and Oct. 24, the date of today's report.

The total estimated cost of the campaign is in excess of the Republican budget of $2,079,037.20, presented to the Senate Committee at a hearing here last August.

Contributions received since June 14 total $2,914,708, or $128,186 less than the amount expended to date. Mr. Upham's report shows. Of the amount collected $1,793,556 was devoted directly to the national campaign under the direction of the National Committee. The remaining $1,121,149 was returned to the States in which it was raised.

Senator Harding and Gov. Coolidge each gave $1,000.

Mr. Upham's office estimated there were approximately 50,000 contributors to the campaign chest. There are thousands of 25, 50, 75 cent and $1 donations, as well as large numbers in odd cents. Eleven Chicago women gave 62 cents each. Why, no one in Mr. Upham's office knew.

$878,831.24 FUND RAISED IN COUNTRY FOR COX CAMPAIGN

$665,481.33 Collected in New York City—Only $1,763 in San Francisco.

Total receipts by the Democratic National Committee to Oct. 25 for the conduct of the present campaign amount to $878,831.24, according to an announcement today by Wilbur W. Marsh, the party's national treasurer. This figure, Mr. Marsh said, was today submitted according to the requirements of the Corrupt Practices Law to the Kenyon committee investigating campaign contributions and expenditures in Chicago.

The sum collected, the Democratic Treasurer stated, is constituted as follows:

(Continued on Twenty-fourth Page.)

ROBBED OF $30,000 JEWELS IN CHICAGO

President of Maider Lane Company Reports Theft From Room in Hotel.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Samuel Blum, president of the Diamond Ring Company, No. 41 Madison Lane, New York, reported to the Chicago Police today this morning that jewelry valued at $30,000 was stolen from his room in a hotel last night during his absence.

At the office of the company it was stated this morning that no report had been received regarding the robbery. Mr. Blum, it was stated, is at the Hotel Sherman in Chicago and had with him a number of gold rings and a few precious stones.

BRITAIN SUBMITS SIXTEEN TREATIES TO WORLD LEAGUE

All International Agreements Made Since Covenant Went Into Effect.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—GREAT BRITAIN has submitted to the League of Nations for registration and publication sixteen international agreements entered into by her since the covenant of the League came into force, Jan. 10, according to advices received here today from headquarters of the League Council.

"These agreements," said the advices, "include engagements of the empire as a whole and specific engagements of India, South Africa and Canada. They cover such widely different subjects as the Anglo-French oil agreement signed at San Remo, an agreement on commercial relations with Estonia, and agreement with Soviet Russia for exchange of prisoners and various accords and denunciations regarding treaties which expired before Jan. 10."

RYAN ANSWERS HAYS'S APOLOGY IN $15,000 CHECK

Writes Another Indignant Protest Against Immaculate Conception Cartoon.

Allan A. Ryan, who first called public attention to the Immaculate Conception cartoon circulated by the Republican National Committee as an attack on the League of Nations, today contributed an additional check for $15,000 to the campaign fund of the Democratic National Committee. The contribution accompanied another letter on the subject of the cartoon, and the contribution makes a $45,000 total for Mr. Ryan. Mr. Ryan's letter follows:

Oct. 22, 1920.

Dear Mr. White:

I observe that Will H. Hays, Chairman of the Republican National Committee, has attempted a lame apology for the cartoon which invoked blasphemy and sacrilege in the interest of the Republican ticket.

His apology does not, however, recite the true chronology or all the facts.

As I wrote you on Oct. 23d, this desecration of the Christian religion formed a prominent feature of Harvey's Weekly last week. This journal is a purchased organ of the Republican National Committee. As I wrote you on Oct. 15, 1920, the cartoonist who drew it was and still is the official cartoonist of the Republican National Committee. I have since learned that the Committee not only sent out this cartoon in its free press office but that it was printed in the Oct. 9 issue of the National Republican, also a subsidized organ of the Republican National Committee. The Post Office Department reports show that this organ is owned by Mr. Hays, Mr. Weeks, Mr. Hilges, Mr. Adams, Mr. McKinney and others, now actively engaged in making the Republican campaign.

Thus this shameful cartoon was

(Continued on Eighteenth Page.)

CONTRACTOR SAYS HE PAID $2,000 GRAFT TO BRINDELL; COMPETENT MEN DISCHARGED

Witnesses at Lockwood Hearing Declare "Tribute" Mounting to Thousands of Dollars Begins Before Cellars of Buildings Are Dug—Business Losses Revealed.

Jacob Pradus, a general contractor, today told the Lockwood Legislative Committee investigating the "Building Trust" that Robert P. Brindell, President of the Building Trades Council, had "put him out of business" after he had refused "to produce $25,000" in order that he might retain his labor and complete his job. Pradus also testified he had paid Brindell $1,000 in $100 bills for a job and a working agreement with the Council.

Other direct charges of the collection of graft tribute were made against Brindell by witnesses.

These witnesses were men, all concerned in the trade of house wrecking—clearing away old structures to make way for new buildings. It was told that even before the foundations are laid or the cellars dug and while yet the ground remained uncleared the costs of building construction due to the demands of those who "control labor" and who have relations with certain favored (and favoring) contractors begin to mount by the thousands and tens of thousands of dollars.

WITNESSES WHO ACCUSE BRINDELL AT BUILDING HEARING.

William Walzel, a housewrecking contractor, told the committee under questioning by Samuel Untermyer, its counsel, how he was forced to discharge competent, experienced union men who had worked with him, some of them for twenty years, to give place to men selected by Brindell.

He was forced to do this by the Fuller Construction Company, he said, which agreed to pay the additional costs imposed on him by incompetent laborers rather than suffer strikes on its million-dollar contracts in this and other cities. On one job in the Wall Street district this cost the Fuller concern $27,000, Walzel said.

SAYS HIS "WOMEN" FRIENDS WERE MEN

Two men friends of Clinton L. Mundy, president of the J. S. Mundy Holding Engine Works, testified in Newark today that they had gone automobile riding with him at his request dressed in women's clothes. He had said he believed his attorney was being made to "frame him," it was testified. Mundy is using said for separate maintenance by Mrs. Kathryn Walsh Mundy. Vice Chancellor Foster is hearing the case. Mrs. Mundy alleges that she saw her husband with other women.

Raymond Huber, brother of Miss Tillie Huber, mentioned by Mrs. Mundy as having been in Mundy's automobile, said that several times he had put on a woman's waist, veil and hat and gone riding with Mundy. He borrowed the clothes from another of his sisters, Mrs. Charles Huber, he said.

A few minutes later Robert C. Whitting of the Fuller Company, who testified in the hearing, said that he had fought against Brindell's demand that the experienced working force of Walzel, all union men in good standing, be discharged and replaced by men who showed no union cards and had no credentials.